TO

Repeal the Law which prohibits the Growing of Tobacco A.D. 1806.
in Ireland.

WHEREAS it is of the greatest importance that every attention and encouragement should be given to the produce and manufactures of Ireland:

And whereas by the Tobacco Cultivation Act, 1831, the 5 cultivation of tobacco within the kingdom of Ireland, and the exportation of the same from thence, is prohibited:

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled,
10 and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. From and after the passing of this Act, the Tobacco Repeal.
Cultivation Act, 1831, or any other Act made in this kingdom, which prohibits or restrains the setting, planting, or improving to grow, making or curing tobacco, either in seed, plant, or 15 otherwise, in the kingdom of Ireland, shall be, and the same is, hereby repealed and made void.

2. This Act may be cited as the Irish Tobacco Act, 1806. Short title.
